MISS ANNETTE BUSSE is not merely an English teacher. She is the enthusiast who actually looks forward to spending a weekend correcting thirty massive term papers. She is the non-conformist who suggests that her students major in Sanskrit because of the good job opportunities it provides. Miss Busse is the good sport who advises a club even though she knows it involves getting up at five A.M. on cold weekend mornings. But most important, she is the woman who treats each of her students as a special and significant person. For these things, we admire and respect her.

To you, Miss Busse, we dedicate this book.

Dedication

Too often,

we s e

e

our environment

without really looking.

There's so much in our lives—

faces, objects, places, beauty—

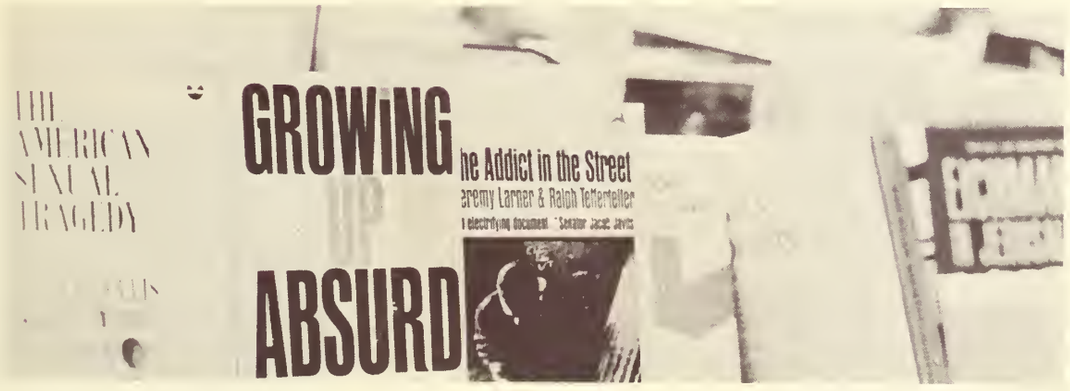
that we see,

but take for granted every day.



Suddenly, in a picture,

an open locker becomes meaningful because we realize that we've seen it each day for four years.

The picture is a memory,

a feeling,

a knowledge that this is what high school is.

And that gives it meaning.

A.F.S. Club

This year, AFS, the student exchange club at Brookline High School, sponsored a winter weekend which forty exchange students from the New England area and their Brookline hosts attended. The club was also very fortunate to have Marjatta Salla from Finland and Miguel Daniel from Argentina as this year's exchange students.

Amateur Radio Club

From Left: Peter Orkin, President; John Carr, Vice-President; Ted Bork, Secretary; Ted Mack, Treasurer.

The Amateur Radio Club is an organization that provides training in those fields. In addition to trips to radio and television stations the opportunity to actually direct radio scripts is available to members.

Bridge Club

Card sharks and amateurs alike find pleasure in the Bridge Club. There they can meet with others who share their enthusiasm for trump, peremptory bids, and grand slams.

Camera Club

This year the Camera Club has emphasized the aesthetic aspect of photography as opposed to the technical aspect. When the darkroom was used, creativity was stressed, photographs were brought in and their compositions analyzed, and the club even explored new ways of lighting and posing the model in portrait work. Photography was seen to be an outlet for artistic expression.

Chess Club

How about it—would you like a game? Whether you're a master or a beginner, come and play. The Chess Club offers not only the enjoyment of an exciting game, but also valuable experience in patience and logic. In the past, the Chess Team has competed and emerged victorious in many tournaments with other schools. The Brookline Chess Club is one move, two moves, three moves better than any other Chess Club. If you make a move, that is.

Debating Society

The debating society take a national debating topic, divide themselves into affirmative and negative teams, and each team then prepares its respective case. They debate among themselves, with other teams, and occasionally enter tournaments in other parts of the state.

Dramatics Society

Standing: Mr. Edward Belliveau, Adviser; From top to bottom: Martha Jacobs, President; Karen Etcoff, Vice-President; Bill Buck, Treasurer; Sarah Gordon, Secretary.

Dramatics Society

With the coming of a new faculty adviser, Mr. Edward Belliveau, the Dramatics Society has been completely revitalized this year. In addition to providing interested students with experience in acting, directing, and all phases of production, the Dramatics Society has introduced the new ideas of field trips and informal workshops. The fall play was Father of the Bride.

Future Homemakers

From the fragrant odors which escape the ovens on the second floor, anybody would say that Betty Crocker has stiff competition coming from the members of the Future Homemakers of America. Attempting to preserve the arts of home-management, service, and hospitality, the members of the FHA participate in various discussions.

Future Nurses

Any student who is interested in nursing or any allied profession is welcome in the Future Nurses Club. Advised by Miss Mary Maloney, R.N., the school nurse, the club's activities include field trips and guest speakers.

Folk Music Club

Chicago blues, folk-rock, and contemporary topical ballads are just some of the types of music which are presented to the members of the Folk Music Club. The club also schedules individual performers, hoots, and workshops, and sponsers a subset, the Kiddie Group, which entertains at different elementary schools.

Future Scientists

Spreading scientific knowledge among the student body of Brookline High School is the objective of the Brookline Chapter #3981 of the Future Scientists of America. The FSA sponsors numerous lectures by known authorities in the various sciences, field trips to scientific institutions, and numerous demonstrations of newly acquired experimental school apparatus. Although the Brookline chapter of the FSA is a very young club, there is a very bright future ahead of it.

Future Teachers

For those who are interested in a teaching career, the Future Teachers of America Club offers a deep insight into the field of education. Our meetings deal with many aspects of elementary, secondary, college, and special education.

Seated: Elaine Cerul, 2nd Vice-President; Nancy Hoffman, President; Ellen Burack, 1st Vice-President; Leslie Gallant; Standing: Ellen Sussman, Michael Marram, Treasurer; Joyce Goodfader, Jane Gallant; Absent: Amy Selig, 3rd Vice-President.

German Club

If you are a German student with the desire to learn more about famous people and places in Germany, join the German Club. Films, lectures, and discussions characterize the club's meetings. But don't just take our word for it

Seated: Florence Holland, Marcus Sodums, Steven Sneddon, Gabriella Mamson, Sandra VanHoek; Standing: Severin Grossman, Mr. Friedland.

Seated: Ellen Fleishman, Secretary; Maureen Lally, First Vice-President; Jane Donovan, President; Nancy Katzen, Second Vice-President; Chesca Galluccio, Treasurer; Standing: Janet Prague, Linda Hicks, Judy Naiman, Ellen Sussman, Nancy Weinstein, Mrs. Wittenberg, Miss Driscoll, Liz Weiner, Cheryl Weissman, Natalie Ross, Joyce Miller.

Girls' League

Every girl in Brookline High School is considered a member of the Girls' League and is consequently entitled to attend the social meetings, acquaintance parties, teas, and fashion shows which are the activities of the Girls' League. Girls of every house are invited to work on these functions and are encouraged to volunteer at hospitals and at social service organizations.

Row 1: Kathy Lavine, Secretary; Dave Pearlman, Steve Backman, Elliot Sargon, President; Row 2: Peter Weiner, Roberta Williams, Arthur Segal, Sophomore Representative; Row 3: Richard Thaler, Gerald Belsky, Nancy Weinstein; Row 4: Stan Baker, Virgo Lee, James Crandberg; Row 5: Steven Provizer, Treasurer; Joseph Kaplan; Row 6: Burton Rosenthal, Gail Michaelson; Row 7: Miss Gray; Standing: William Levine, Ken Yas, Corresponding Secretary; Nathan Gilfenbaum, Vice-President; Bill Hunter, Chris Hafferty, Perry Gould, Mr. Wright.

School Council

The Student Council is composed of representatives from each house who serve as a liaison between the faculty and the student body. This group promotes participation by the entire school in all worthwhile drives and events.

Central Treasury

Central Treasury is the financial control center for all clubs and school activities. In the bank accounts of the Central Treasury are balances that total over $50,000. Clubs, publications, faculty funds, and scholarships receive and pay out over $5,000 in some months. Girls of the Central Treasury keep records, pay bills, balance accounts and publish statements as a service to Brookline High School and as preparation for financial positions after graduation.

Student Court

In the belief that democracy can be made to work when all share its responsibilities and privileges, the students of Brookline High established the Student Court of Justice. The court functions as a tribunal of twelve justices from the upper three houses to hear and try the cases of those accused of infractions of the school rules.

Row 1: Abraham Glazer, Virginia Donovan, Janie Gallant, Paul Sheinkoff, Arnold Possick; Row 2: Steven Pearl, David Sarna, Joel Gore, Jim Davis, Chief Justice; Mr. Bartlett, John Woll, Richard Fishman, Penny Levin.

Seated: Nancy Paley, Treasurer; Howard Piltch, President; Charlette Pincus; Standing: Michael Paley, Paul Konstadt; Absent: Martha Schley, Vice-President; Sharon Biederman, Secretary.

Student Forum

For those students interested in the serious affairs of today there is the Student Forum. This club presents guest speakers who lecture on and discuss current topics.

Jr. Red Cross

Representatives of the Junior Red Cross do a great service for people all over the world. We urge BHS students to contribute funds for necessary items which are sent to needy people in many countries.

Human Relations

Founded for the purpose of helping new students get to know BHS, the Human Relations Council is composed of the presidents of all the organizations in the school. This year, the council sponsored an assembly for students new to BHS which presented the various activities the High School has to offer. In future years the Council hopes to help all new students get acquainted with the school.

From Left: Nancy McBrine, Wendy Mason, Jennifer Lewis, Gerald Belsky, Marc Bergschneider, Bob Csillag.

Seated: Mike Neckes, Secretary; Mark Coven, Vice-President; Perry Gould, President; Peter Weiner; Standing: Mr. Coe, Gerald Belsky; Absent: Jay Patt, Treasurer.

Key Club

Dedicated to the development of leadership and character, the Key Club, sponsored by Kiwanis International, is a service club of high school boys. The Key Club undertakes many worthy projects aimed at meeting school, community, national, or personal needs. Key Club members act as School Guides, hold an annual party for eighth grade boys in June, and do various types of volunteer work throughout the year.

Library Aides

Whom do you turn to when you have one study hall left to write a six page paper entitled "The Effect of the Penny Loafer on Modern Man", and you can only find information on saddle shoes? The Library Aides can help in many ways—by taking your pass to your study hall, by helping you find information on your topic, and by keeping the library quiet enough for you to become engrossed in your subject matter.

Literary Society

Anyone who appreciates good literature should join the Literary Society. It is divided into groups, the Reader's Group which reads and discusses authors, and the Writer's Group which analyzes the original work of its members. The Society is responsible for the publication of Literary Leaves, a collection of students' poems, stories, and essays.

Latin Club

"A funny thing happened on the way to the Forum," said the president to the senatores (Anglically called—the members of the Latin Club.) "Someone asked me where I was going. And so I answered, 'to this first meeting of the Latin Club.' The stranger became excited, 'you mean the club that talks about the out-of-the-way things in Roman culture, learns about the games Roman children played, sings carols in Latin, plays Latin Bingo . . .' He would have praised the club longer, but I had to leave—You see, I was late. Oh—you've noticed."

Math Society

From Left: Eliot Fishlyn, Secretary; Steven Sneddon, President; Mrs. Addelson, Adviser; Mike Fine, Treasurer; Neil Miller, Vice-President.

The Math Society promotes interest in math outside the classroom. Guest speakers are frequent at the club's meetings. Annually, the club enters a project in the Science Fair, and encourages many of its members to enter their own projects. The Math Society stimulates its members to further study of this subject.

Majorettes

Marshals

Rendering a valuable service to their fellow students and the faculty, the marshals enforce the regulations of the school. Because of the cooperation and action of the locker, floor, lunchroom marshals and guides, Brookline High runs more smoothly.

Mental Health

Seated: Barbara Lung, Treasurer; Elaine Berlin, Vice-President; Stephanie Field, President; Betty Davis, Vice-President; Standing: Mr. Resnick, Donna Christie, Linda Annacone, Daphne Gallatin, Eileen MacDonald, Jennie Yates, Barbara Feldman, Betsy McCandless.

The Mental Health club offers its members the opportunity to both learn and serve. Members give parties for the mentally retarded and mentally disturbed, work in special programs at Mass. Mental Health Center, and entertain the elderly in local nursing homes. Tours to places such as Fernald School, Metropolitan State Hospital, and the Worcester Biologic Center form a part of the club's activities. Group discussions on such topics as the emotional difficulties of adolescence, the drug problem, or the relationship between poetry and the emotions provide interesting meetings for the members.

Modern Art

Whether or not you find a hidden meaning in a big blob of red and green paint, the BHS Art Club has a great deal to offer those interested in art. This organization is made up of members from all four houses, many of whom are students in the Art Department. The activities include exhibits, movies, and trips to museums and art school.

Kneeling: Gail Strasfeld, Nancy Flax, Roberta Brucker, Linda Holtz, Judith Rothschild, Judy Best; Standing: Ruth Fischer, Secretary; Jakki Kouffman, Vice-President; Debby Shuman, President; Gail Kass, Treasurer; Mrs. Woodbury, Adviser.

Murivian Business

Room 308 is the center of all Murivian Business transactions. The staff handles all sales and distribution of the yearbook.

Standing: Margie Glazer, Assistant Manager; Joyce Oberman, Head of Staff II; Fred Meister, Treasurer; Mr. Bruce, Adviser; Ellen Sussman, Ronald Rogers, Janet Bavicchi; Seated: Joel Nesson, Treasurer; Janet Prague, Laurel Steinberg, Edith Kohl, Head of Faculty; Hope Allschwang, Head of Faculty; Absent: Penny Levin, Manager.

Murivian Editorial

Concert Choir

Any student who crosses the bridge near the music department during sixth period will hear the Brookline High School Concert Choir at work. During the year the choir has the opportunity to participate in exchange programs with other singing groups, and to perform in various school and outside functions. Whether it be at the annual Quadrangle Concert or at Boston Pops, any performance which the Concert Choir presents is appreciated by all.

Glee Club

All students who pass an audition may become members of the Glee Club. The Glee Club meets for four periods a week during which the members, while improving their musical techniques, are exposed to all types of music. The Glee Club participates in many concerts during the year.

Office Aides

Pep Club

School Spirit is our objective. We cheer Brookline on to victory at football and basketball games, we make sure the buses arrive on time, and the culmination of our efforts is the sponsoring of an Athletic Banquet held at the end of the year.

Officers: Marjorie McCracken, Treasurer; Barbara Nugent, Vice-President; Nancy Greenberg, President; Jean Burns, Secretary.

Philosophy Seminar

Under the leadership of Mr. Amoroso, the Philosophy Seminar discusses the major thinkers of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries with special emphasis on the relation of philosophy to literature. Among the writers discussed have been Dostoevsky, Camus, and Sartre.

Shirley Wolman, Secretary; Joel Grishaver, Elizabeth Coons, Judith Rothchild, Richard Rutenburg.

Public Address Corps

The Public Address Corps is the internal broadcasting system of the Brookline High School. The voices heard on the P.A. belong to the dedicated P.A. crew who inform the school of the meetings and bulletins which require immediate attention. It's the voice of WBHS—"The number one station in the nation."

Russian Club

The Russian Club, one of the newest organizations, was established for the promotion of the Russian language and culture. Lectures, slides, and discussions of Russian customs and holidays characterize the meetings.

Sagamore Business

From Left: Ronald Rogers, Mr. Roland Dwinell, Robert Brauner.

Sagamore Editorial Staff

Sagamore is a newspaper. Sagamore is a cave in the new wing. Sagamore is walking down the corridor at 8:15 p.m. and knowing you've been at school since 8:15 a.m. Sagamore is deciding what to write about itself in the Murivian. Sagamore is a newspaper.

Ski Club

Who cares about getting up at four A.M. on a cold Saturday morning? Does it really matter if you fall off a T-Bar and spend an hour crawling through the jungles of New Hampshire? What about those muscles that will ache for the next week? They don't matter to the members of the Ski Club. They're having too much fun.

Social Customs Club

Social Customs is more than an exploration of Customs—it involves open discussions of teenage problems and ideas. Demonstrations and lectures in related areas are presented.

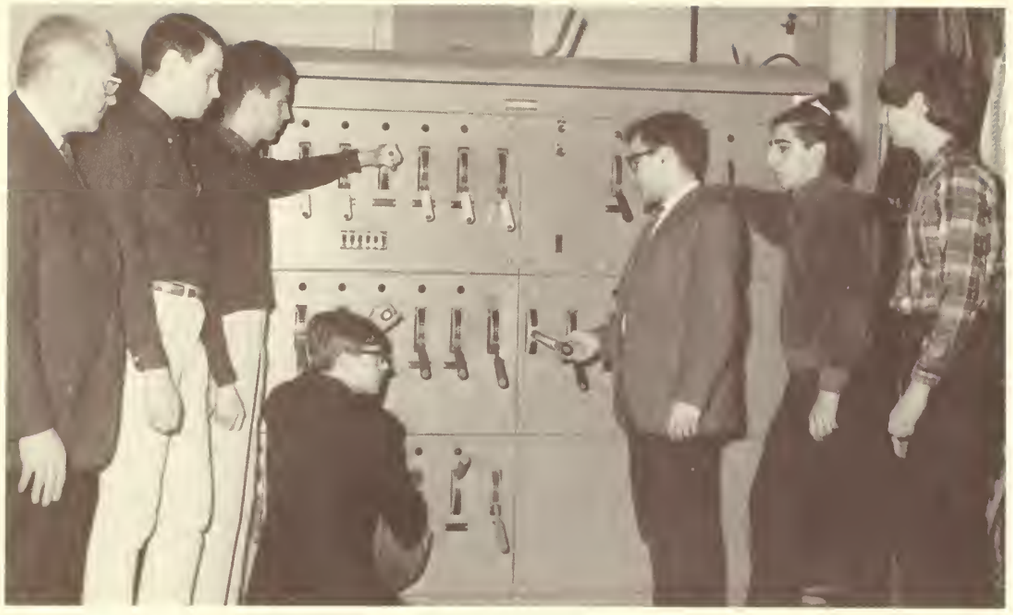
Spanish Club

Despite the size of the Spanish Club, the active members are still able to enjoy numerous Spanish fiestas and meetings each year. The club's activities include movies and talks on Spain as well as other Spanish-speaking countries, and the club's parties are held in the real Spanish tradition.



Stage & Electric Crew

Not everyone is willing to spend hours stirring huge pails of paint and glue or flipping light switches backstage. The members of the Stage and Electrical Staff, however, gleefully don blue jeans and torn sweatshirts to provide an effective setting for countless school functions.

Student Manual

What has all the polish of a novel by Hemingway, the sensitivity of a painting by Rembrandt, the knowledge of the Encyclopedia Britannica, and the wisdom of the Bible? Give up? The STUDENT MANUAL! This useful booklet contains information about all school clubs, student government, activities, and school life.

The Orogenic Scaling Club of Brookline, more commonly known as Toscob, was organized early in 1966. Toscob is dedicated to mountain climbing, geological and biological research, and just plain fun. Under the direction of Mr. P. G. Richter, Toscob boasts one trip each month to various locations in the New England area. Included in Toscob's log book are trips to the Hoosic Tunnel and Mount Washington.

Roxbury and Brookline Tutors

In the past few years many students have volunteered an afternoon each week to tutor grammar school children in Lincoln and Roxbury schools. The tutors help their pupils in reading, math and language fundamentals, but more important, they attempt to give their tutees confidence in themselves.

WGBH Pages

In its second year at Brookline High School, the WGBH Pages have provided Boston's educational television station with students who serve as office workers, tour guides, and ushers at WGBH's weekly jazz concert. Besides teaching the participating students about the insides of the television industry, this club provides an invaluable service to the community.

Winter Carnival 1967

The 1967 Winter Carnival was a blend of the traditional and the mod. There were the traditional pie-eating contest, the exciting hockey games, and, of course, the crowning of this year's Winter Carnival Queen, Wendy Ruby.

Many new ideas were included this year: record dedications, telegrams, and even marriage booth. Roberts House's band and go-go girls represented the "young generation," and popular music replaced traditional skating melodies.

Winter Carnival Court: Michaela Barker, Third runner-up; Wendy Ruby, Queen; Valerie Young, First runner-up: Absent: Bobbie Katz, Second runner-up.

For the second year in a row, the Brookline High School Wrestling Team won the Greater Boston Sectional Tournament. Because this season's record was not outstanding, the opposing teams in the tournament considered Brookline a "dark-horse" opponent. Brookline wrestled throughout the season under the able leadership of its co-captains, Christopher O'Callahan and Irving Cable, to finish in the top ten in the state meet.

Baseball

The 1966 baseball team culminated a successful season with a 12 and 6 record, losing its chance to enter the state-wide championship with a heartbreaking loss to Newton High after decisive victories over the strongest teams in the state. High points during the season included the hitting of Co-Captain Jeff Blumenthal (.375) and the pitching of Co-Captain William Archibald.

THE ANIMALS

BROOKLINE

It was a winter of exams and skiing,
broken legs, broken hearts.
Football games, S.A.T.'s,
rushing, tension . . .

Waiting in agony for a report card, an invitation,
an acceptance.

Walking home from school
during a snowstorm.
Red faced. Wet.

And then spring.
Open windows, senior slump,
a prom, finals.
Relief . . .

Freshmen are now sophomores.
Seniors are now freshmen.
And Brookline High continues to be.
